

Aspects of Family in East Asian Cultures and Languages

Institute of East Asian Studies, Eötvös Loránd University

March 13, 2020
Hungary, 1088 Budapest
Múzeum krt. 4/B

International conference organized in the framework of the “Community Building: Family and Nation, Tradition and Innovation” project of the Thematic Excellence Programme supported by the National Research, Development and Innovation Office

Conference Programme – Room 217

10:00–10:20 Opening

Session A1 – Religion and Mythology

10:30–10:50 The Role of Family in Chinese Buddhism
HAMAR Imre, Department of Chinese Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

10:50–11:10 Animal Spouse in Mongolian Mythology and Folklore
BIRTALAN Ágnes, Department of Mongolian and Inner Asian Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

11:10–11:30 Celibacy or Marriage? Ways and Dilemmas for Buddhist Monks in Korea
MECSI Beatrix, Department of Korean Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

11:30–11:50 Gods in the Family: the Relationship Between Family and Religion in Yongfeng
Joseph CHADWIN, University of Vienna (Vienna, Austria)

11:50–13:00 Lunch break

Session A2 – Religion and Mythology

13:00–13:20 Goddess Mother of Earth Cult and its Daoist-Buddhist Contexts Along the Southwestern Silk Road
BAGI Judit, Library and Information Center of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences (Budapest, Hungary)

13:20–13:40 Wedding Customs in Amdo
BÉRES Judit, Department of Mongolian and Inner Asian Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

13:40–14:00 An Initiation rite in Tibetan Historiography
SZEGEDI Mónika, Department of Buddhist and Tibetan Studies, Doctoral School of Philosophy, Intercultural Philosophy Doctoral Program, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

14:00–14:20 The Family of Hongor in Mongolian Heroic Epic Jangar
AODUNHU, Inner Mongolian University (Hohhot, China)

14:20–14:40 Coffee break

Session A3 – Early History

14:40–15:00 Family Relations in 11th-12th-Century Tibet – An Analysis of Milarepa’s Biography
TÓTH Erzsébet, Department of Buddhist and Tibetan Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

15:00–15:20 From Family Crisis to State Crisis – A Case Study of an Early Manchurian Conquest Dynasty
BALOGH Mátyás, Department of Mongolian and Inner Asian Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

15:20–15:40 The 'Kbon clan and the Sakyapas
PÉTER Alexa, Department of Buddhist and Tibetan Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)

15:40–16:00 The Characteristics of Family of the Old Uighurs as Reflected in the Old Uighur Contractual Documents
HE Ruyi, Minzu University of China (Beijing, China)

16:00–16:20 The Role of Family in Modern China: a Blended Compressed Transformation of the Private and Public Spheres
RAJKAI Zsombor, College of International Relations of Ritsumeikan University (Kyoto, Japan)

Aspects of Family in East Asian Cultures and Languages

Institute of East Asian Studies, Eötvös Loránd University

March 13, 2020
Hungary, 1088 Budapest
Múzeum krt. 4/B

International conference organized in the framework of the “Community Building: Family and Nation, Tradition and Innovation” project of the Thematic Excellence Programme supported by the National Research, Development and Innovation Office

Conference Programme – Room 242

Session B1 – Traditional and New Woman’s Roles

10:30–10:50	From a Traditional Grandmother to an Independent Woman – Change of the Picture of Elderly Women in the Korean Media KIM Youngsung, University of Bucharest (Bucharest, Romania)
10:50–11:10	Bibon yeoseong – New Lifestyle and New Choices of Being Married or Not Married in South Korea Fajkuszné KOVÁCS Ramóna, Department of Korean Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
11:10–11:30	Regulating Women's Sexuality with Legislative Measures: Unmarried Mothers in South Korea since the 1960s KIM Youlim, Ruhr University (Bochum, Germany)
11:30–11:50	The Context and the Concept of Women’s Education in Late 19th Century Japan TAKÓ Ferenc, Department of Japanese Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
11:50–13:00	Lunch break

Session B2 – Family and Modern Society

13:00–13:20	Women and the Current Working Environment in Japanese Society – Have the Ways of Work and Family Changed? UMEMURA Yuko, Department of Japanese Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
13:20–13:40	Families and Demographic Trends in Contemporary China SALÁT Gergely, Department of Chinese Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
13:40–14:00	Images of the Japanese family: Between Change, Tradition and Consumption PAPP Melinda, Department of Japanese Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
14:00–14:20	The Role of Family and Tradition Among Second Generation Chinese Immigrants in Hungary KNYIHÁR Eszter, Department of Chinese Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
14:20–14:40	Coffee break

Session A4 – Linguistics

14:40–15:00	Introduction to Mongolian Kinship Terminology in Inner Mongolia WUYINGGA, Inner Mongolian University (Hohhot, China)
15:00–15:20	Teaching Culture Through Language: Teaching Korean Kinship Terms in a Korean as a Foreign Language Classroom NGUYEN Krisztina, Department of Korean Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
15:20–15:40	The Role of the Kinship System in the Rynkyuan Language Use: Language Skills and Intergenerational Language Transmission HIDVÉGI Zsófia, Department of Japanese Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
15:40–16:00	Family in the Kalmyk and Oirat Languages as Reflected in 17–19th Century Sources RÁKOS Attila, Department of Mongolian and Inner Asian Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)
16:00–16:20	Renouncing the World and Taking Ordination – Family Ties of Mongolian Buddhist Novices TELEKI Krisztina, Research Centre for Mongolian Studies, Department of Mongolian and Inner Asian Studies, Eötvös Loránd University (Budapest, Hungary)