Our international student community

ELTE's Faculty of Humanities is proud to receive an increasing number of fee-paying international students from all four corners of the world. Our figures indicate that there is a growing interest in humanities and the mutual understanding of one another's cultures, languages, and civilizations.

In AY 2020/2021 Spring Semester, our Department of International Affairs handled the registration of over 600 international students arriving from more than 35 different countries, including but not limited to China, Turkey, Iran, Nigeria, Cameroon, Japan, Korea, the United States, several countries of the Middle East, South America, and the Far East.

Within the framework of the Stipendium Hungaricum Scholarship the Government of Hungary launched in 2013, our International Office registers more than 150 new students year to year.

Popular programs include: English and Hungarian Foundation Courses, English and American Studies BA, Film Studies MA, Logic and Theory of Science MA, Semiotics MA, English Studies MA, American Studies MA and the Instruction of English as a Foreign Language MA.

Stipendium Hungaricum

Scholarship program for foreign students

Founded by the Hungarian Government in 2013

The program aims to promote cultural understanding, economic and cultural relations between Hungary and other countries.

It is based on bilateral education agreements between Hungary and the governments of the sending countries,

Already available on five continents in almost 80 countries and territories, attracting more than 5000 international students each year.

Applicants are offered more than 600 full degree programmes, covering all higher education fields at all degree levels, including part-time and doctoral programmes.

FOR EVERY FULL-TIME SCHOLARSHIP HOLDER:

- ❖ no tuition fee
- ❖ monthly stipend
- ❖ dormitory places or additional contribution to accommodation costs
- ❖ medical insurance

Corona virus

The University starts the Academic Year of 2021/22 with personal attendance.

Personal attendance of students is compulsory.

ELTE Epidemiological Operative Coordinating Body recommends for all University Citizens to take the opportunity to be vaccinated.

Lack of vaccination protection alone will not entitle our students to have an exceptional study schedule with distance education.

All university events can be attended only with a proof of immunity.

Corona virus

Please never forget the general COVID-19 obligations:

- wearing a mask
- washing hands
- keep distance
- do not leave your home, if you have symptom
