

Dear Students,

Spring semester 2020/21 is here, it is time to energize yourself, and start the new semester with enthusiasm and excitement. We hope that your exams were successful, and you could also relax in January.

Please find our February collection of news and programmes in this newsletter.

NEWS

www.shutterstock.com • 640112647

Welcome to our new students

We are happy to welcome our new students for 2020/21/2. Enjoy your stay with us!

Erasmus+ call for application

ELTE announces the invitation to apply for Erasmus+ mobility programmed for the Academic Year 2021/2022.

COVID restrictions are extended

The extraordinary legal order has been extended until 1 March 2021. University education starts

New Interim Academic Regulations

ELTE's Epidemiological Operative Coordinating Body published the updated Interim Academic online.

Regulations regarding Spring 2020/21.

New Vice-Deans at ELTE Faculty of Humanities

Four new Vice-Deans help the work of the new Dean, Dr Dávid Bartus from 1 February 2021. Congratulations for them!

Coaching, counselling, and advisory service

If you have any difficulties with studies or your well-being, coaching, counselling, and advisory services are available free of charge.

Meet the new international student ambassadors

Congratulations for our new student ambassadors chosen for 2020/21 to advertise the Faculty of Humanities, and help those who are interested in studying at ELTE BTK.

Free open lectures on populism in history and theory

NSSR & ELTE joint series by Andrew Arato and guest lecturers. The course defines populism, then compare and contrast the presence of it throughout modern history.

Consortium led by ELTE developed the new Erasmus+ app

Management of the Erasmus+ mobility becomes easier with the app for students! The application debuted on 28 Jan 2021 at the European Commission.

5 great days out close to Budapest Check them out

Either in winter, either in spring weather, these places worth to visit near Budapest. Grab your hiking shoes, and visit all of them.

---

TRAINING OPPORTUNITY

Intercultural training series at the Faculty of Humanities

Apply now, and meet other international students!

First workshop: 19 February 2021

The four connected workshops are designed to make your international experience more enjoyable, fruitful, and conscious. The series is also about creating a small international community to support each other during these hard times.

Click on the pictures for more details and registration.

---

FOLLOW US

Follow the Facebook page of the Department of the Doctoral and Academic Affairs.

Up-to-date information, applications, news.

Click here for visiting the page.

---

USEFUL INFORMATION, CALENDAR

Do not forget the most important deadlines of the following period. For the details, visit the Academic calendar on the Faculty website.

- Start of tuition 2020/21/2.
- Course registration.
- Deadline to submit requests for lower tuition fee.

---

MOVIE

New Neptun tutorial

We are happy to publish the brand new Neptun tutorial film that intends to help our students even more with all study administration issues.

Check out the film, it may contain new information for every student!

---

We wish you a nice semester.

If you have any feedbacks, concerns, contact us.

Department of International Affairs

---

This email was sent to <<Email Address>>

why did I get this? unsubscribe from this list update subscription preferences

Eötvös Loránd University Faculty of Humanities · Budapest · Budapest, Budapest 1088 · Hungary

